CONSERVATION HALL, St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—The president of the United States was humiliated at this congress. His reception was cool and not even his office was honored, while Theodore Roosevelt, a private citizen, was honored beyond measure," declared Henry Hartner, one of the tight members of the executive committee of the national conservation congress, at a specially called meeting of state conservation committees, before the opening of today's session.

"Now they're trying to close the congress this evening, 24 hours before the time set for closing it in the program. It was not conservation that they came here to talk; it was politics. President Baker of the conservation congress has been scheduled to take the place of Richard A. Ballinger and I can prove it. It's time that we delegates took matters in our own hands and talk conservation instead of politics."

Talk Against Politics

One result of Hartner's remarks was that J. W. Whipple of New York, Amos L. Pondo of Louisiana and State Forester Allan of California were given fifteen minutes each at the opening of today's session to talk against politics in conservation.

Hartner's charges in regard to Baker have caused some of the delegates to start a movement in favor of Captain J. B. White of Kansas City for the presidency of the association. The supporters of Captain White say that the effort of the congress officials to end the congress today is part of the politics to push Baker to the front and incidentally scorn President Taft.

Hartner presented a resolution which was adopted changing the time for the election of officers and the presentation of the congress resolutions from this afternoon until 8 o'clock this evening.

CONVENTION HALL, St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 8.—When the conservation congress was called to order by President B. N. Baker this morning it had been decided to close the congress this evening, cutting it short by one day.

The session began today with reports from the state conservation associations of thirty-six states.

Delegates Bite the Bit

Delegates to the National Conservation Congress took the bit in their teeth, demanded that the federal and state rights issue be settled, and that their reports on the progress of conservation as advocated by the various state conservation associations be heard.

R. W. Douglas, of Washington state; Henry Hartner of Urania, La., and Amos L. Pondo of Louisiana, called a meeting Wednesday evening of state associations. This meeting voted that President Baker be requested by the states to give say, "I never read advertising."

They are mistaken.
They do read advertising.

They may not sit down and make a business of reading the advertising, but they do read the advertising unconsciously and can tell you who the leading advertisers in their daily papers are.

You will also find that these very same people patronize stores that advertise and buy advertised goods. They are being influenced by advertising without knowing it.

The best paper to influence all buyers is The TRIBUNE.

It goes to the homes of many thousand people in the evening, just the time when advertising is read.

CRIPPEN AND MISS
LENEVE LOSE NERVE

Both Are Deeply Agitated
Today when Evidence of Poisoning Is Presented

DEFENSE TO EXAMINE BODY

Titled Women Are Among the Spectators in the Sensational London
Murder Trial

LONDON, Sept. 8.—Dr. H. H. Crippen has lost his iron nerve. When the supposed wife murderer appeared in the Bow Street police court today at the resumption of his hearing on a charge of murdering his wife, Belle Elmore, it was plainly seen that Tuesday's development of the discovery of hyoscine poison in the body supposed to be that of his wife had worked a great change in him.

Tuesday Crippen was possessed of the utmost sangfroid. Today he was agitated and he was overheard to converse anxiously with Miss Ethel Clare Leneve, his former stenographer, who is charged with being an accessory after the fact, regarding the testimony of Analyst Wilcox who found more than half a grain of hyoscine in the body of the murdered woman.

Evidence Is Serious

Unless this evidence is successfully combated it is generally believed that it will prove a death blow to Crippen's defense. Crippen is understood to have planned a defense, in the event the identity of the body is proved that his wife died as the result of an operation that he performed upon her but the presence of this poison in her body will, it is believed, discredit such a statement. There was surprise on all sides that Crippen should have been permitted to talk with Miss Leneve. The evident interest of the latter in the fate of the man with whom she fled to Canada tends to disprove the story that she will be used as a witness against Crippen. The prosecution is working upon the effort to get her to turn against Crippen but so far she has shown no indication of doing so.

One of the more important witnesses of the day was Harold Kirby, employed by Lewis and Burrows, a firm of chemists. He testified that Crippen bought five grains of hyoscine of him on January 19 but admitted that the doctor had frequently bought this poison, using it, as he said, as a sedative for his nerves.

Titled Women Present

Several titled women were discovered in the court room, despite their attempt at incognito.

Sir William Gilbert, the dramatist, again sat by the side of the presiding judge.

Mrs. Smythson, of Brixton, testified that she saw Miss Leneve wearing a brooch that had belonged to Mrs. Crippen at the music hall ball. She also said that Crippen told her that his wife had died while enroute to America to visit her family and that he intended to have the body cremated and the ashes brought back to England.

Mrs. Harrison, also of Brixton, testified that she recognized a dressing jacket found among Miss Leneve's effects as similar to one worn by Mrs. Crippen. Miss Leneve showed the greatest interest in the testimony regarding her possession of the effects of Mrs. Crippen.

Typical Agitation

It was not until, however, Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard took the stand that Miss Leneve showed any agitation. Dew testified that he saw Miss Leneve at Crippen's Hill-drop Crescent home on June 30 and that she told him that she was the doctor's housekeeper.

"When I questioned her closely," Dew said, "she admitted her identity. She was greatly agitated at my discovery of her relations with the doctor."

In an attempt to disprove the testimony of Analyst Wilcox that he found hyoscine poison in the body of the murdered woman, Solicitor Newton and two expert medical men will tomorrow make an examination of the remains.

Dew on the Stand

In the statement made to Dew by Crippen in the latter's office Crippen told of his meeting Belle Elmore for the first time, when she was living under the protection of a New York man named C. C. Inwood.

"Crippen told me," Dew continued, "that he had frequent quarrels with his wife owing to her ungovernable temper. On the night of Jan. 31, after the Martinettis had left the Crippen home, Crippen said he and his wife quarreled and that she told him that she would leave him the following day and that he would never hear from her again."

"According to Crippen, his wife

Night's Work on
P. O. Till

Last night two bandits burglarized a hardware store and the postoffice at Mondovi, Wis., shot four times at the town marshal and escaped with 47 cents, all the postmistress had left in the stamp drawer when she went home the night before.

According to the story which reaches La Crosse late this afternoon, the bandits stole from the hardware store the tools with which to break into the postoffice. They encountered the town marshal on the street, and when he sought to interfere fired four times at the official, who "beat it" up an alley and lying flat on his face escaped the bullets.

This morning one of the bullets fired at the marshal, which had penetrated the wall of the hotel, was found on the kitchen floor.

Although authorities are searching for the robbers today they have not been found.

SECOND TRIAL OF BROWNE AT END

CHICAGO Sept. 8.—The second trial of Lee O'Neill Browne, charged with bribing members of the legislature to vote for Senator Lorimer, will come to a close today. It is expected the case will be given to the jury late this afternoon.

The courtroom was jammed with politicians to hear the closing argument of State's Attorney Wayman. Wayman's close was a bitter attack on Browne.

"REGULARS" WILL APPLY WHITEWASH

Action of the Foes of Ballinger Not to Be Allowed to Prevail

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 8.—The regular republican members of the Ballinger-Pinchot congressional investigating committee are determined to make the majority report to congress.

That the democratic and insurgent members of the committee constituting a temporary majority put one over on them in making public their views of R. A. Ballinger in the guise of a committee report adverse to Ballinger on Wednesday afternoon they admit.

"So far as their real effect is concerned, they might as well have formulated their resolutions on the street corner and told them to the nearest policeman," said Senator Geo. Sutherland and Representative McCall of Massachusetts, who left the room together, intending to stop further action by breaking the quorum, both issued written statements following the meeting.

These statements went only to the form of procedure and neither contained an intimation that the verdict itself was unjust. Yet there is every reason to believe that both Senator Sutherland and Representative McCall will join in vindicating Ballinger in the final majority report.

Senator Knute Nelson favored an adjournment until Friday, when Representatives Oimstead of Pennsylvania and Denby of Michigan will both be here. Senator Fletcher and Representative Graham, both democrats, are now formulating a report upholding the Glavis and Pinchot charges and which will eventually be the committee's minority report. The Ballinger forces are counting on at least a tie vote on Friday and if Senator Root comes there will be a majority for Ballinger. Even if Root does not come the final report to congress will be favorable to Ballinger for Senators Root and Flint both have the privilege of concurring in the report even if they do not attend the sessions.

PARIS, Sept. 8.—Chavez, a comparatively new comer in aviation, set a new world's record today for height by reaching an altitude of 8,660 feet.

TEDDY HINTS AT ANOTHER TERM

FREEDOM, Ill., Sept. 8.—Roosevelt made his first reference to the possibility of his ever being in office again while speaking to the railroad men here. He was speaking of keeping his word to the people.

"I don't suppose that I shall ever be in public life again," said the colonel, and he raised his hand as a murmur ran through the crowd.

"But if the time comes and I am called upon to make my word good," he continued, "I hope that you will be able to applaud me."

Later in talking of railroad corporations he surprised the crowd by saying:

"If the time comes that I am ever put in a position of influence I want this directly understood: If a corporation supports me and it turns out to be a crooked corporation, I shall do all in my power to clinch it. I want the support of no corporation if it is crooked."

CROWNHART WILL
NAME SUCCESSOR

Stalwart Chairman Ed Can't Act Because He Doesn't Know of Suicide, "Officially"

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—It is now believed C. H. Crownhart, La Follette's primary manager, as probable the chairman of the new republican state central committee will appoint a nominee for attorney general in place of the late F. T. Tucker. This because the present chairman, E. A. Edmonds, cannot act in the matter until "officially notified" of the vacancy by the state canvassing board which is pro-La Follette and has power to delay canvassing the vote until the new state central committee about to be elected at the platform convention Sept. 26th.

It had been assumed by the Connor leaders that the present state central committee had power to appoint. This committee is controlled by the stalwarts, and it was learned yesterday that they proposed to have Levi Bancroft, stalwart, next to Tucker in the race for the nomination, appointed. Investigation today shows, however, that while the primary law does not specify whether the vacancy shall be filled by the old or by the new committee, a clause in the general election law authorizes the postponement of action until the new committee convenes. This insures the appointment of a progressive candidate, and Senator Walter Owen of Malden Rock has been strongly suggested for the place.

The average condition of spring wheat when harvested was 63.1 as compared with 61.0 last month, 58.6 in 1909, and 78.0, the ten year average.

The average condition of the oat crop when harvested was 83.3, as compared with 81.5 last month, 83.8 in 1909, and a ten year average of 79.5.

The average condition of tobacco on Sept. 1 was 77.7 as compared with 78.5 last month, 80.2 on Sept. 1, 1909, and a ten year average on Sept. 1 of 82.3.

FREEDPORT, Ill., Sept. 8.—Col. Roosevelt today flatly refused to attend the dinner to be given him by the Hamilton club in Chicago tonight, if United States Senator Wm. Lorimer were present. The colonel met the committee from the club at Freedport this morning and when he learned that Senator Lorimer was to be present at the affair he immediately stated that he would not attend unless Lorimer is eliminated. He said:

"Senator Lorimer represents the antithesis of what I represent in politics. I cannot in justice to myself sit at the same table with him. Gentlemen, I can't do it. If the Illinois senator is to be present at your dinner, I cannot go."

The members of the committee immediately began to hunt telephones into Chicago.

OIL EXPLOSION
ON NORTH DAKOTA

Incomplete Reports Indicate Many were Overcome Fighting the Fire

ACCIDENT OFF VIRGINIA CAPES

Hospital Ship Is Rushed to Scene Late This Afternoon; Fire Under Control

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 8.—In an explosion of a barrel and subsequent fire this afternoon on board the battleship North Dakota, three men were reported killed and eleven others are as yet unaccounted for.

The accident to the North Dakota occurred just inside the Virginia capes. Admiral Schroeder and the hospital ship Solace have gone to the scene.

Oil Burner Explodes Too

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Sept. 8.—A launch from the New Hampshire reports that three men are killed and eleven missing. The trouble was caused by an explosion of oil in the fire room.

Wireless reports from the fleet say the barrel of oil which exploded was in the fire room and was immediately followed by the explosion of an oil burner.

The report that three were killed seems to be confirmed, though nothing definite could be obtained up to 3 o'clock as to the 11 reported missing.

All the flags of the ships of the Atlantic fleet are now at half mast, indicating that official news of the disaster has been transmitted to the various vessels.

Reports so far received indicate that a large number of men were overcome in fighting the flames, which made their way from the fire room into the coal bunkers and threatened to destroy the ship. One report says that over fifty men fainting in the battle with the flames but this is not confirmed.

Schroeder on Scene

The hospital ship Solace is alongside the North Dakota and quick aid will be given to the injured. Admiral Schroeder, who went to the North Dakota immediately after the accident, is in personal charge of the situation. It is stated that no official report of the disaster could be obtained until the Solace came ashore or Admiral Schroeder sent a report by wireless to the navy department.

The battle with the flames was evidently fiercely fought for about half an hour, when it is believed the fire was brought under control. The members of the crew turned valiantly to the work and so far as can be learned at this time, showing no hesitancy in risking their lives in saving their comrades.

Was It Powder

All reports up to 3 p. m. stated that the explosion occurred in a barrel of oil but a rumor gained wide circulation that the accident was caused by an explosion of powder in one of the smaller magazines, or that a shell exploded. Wireless is the only communication that can be had with the North Dakota and details must come through official channels.

Government Is Busy

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 8.—An attempt was made by the navy department this afternoon to reach the battleship North Dakota by wireless from this city following the receipt of unofficial reports saying that three men were killed and eleven missing as the result of an explosion of a barrel of oil. The navy department was informed that Admiral Schroeder was making an investigation.

Assistant Secretary Winthrop took personal charge of the inquiry by wireless.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Sept. 8.—"I am very grateful to my friends for efforts made by them to stem the tide of insurgency which seems to have struck as it has swept over other portions of the country," said Senator Burrows, as the Townsend votes piled higher and higher. "The result of Tuesday's primary election is of course disappointing, but I accept it with utmost complacency and composure. I am hopeful that this insurgent tide will recede at an early day and the normal conditions which speak for peace and prosperity will soon obtain. DEMOCRATS SEEK OPINION ON LAW

Will Ask for Ruling on Constitutionality of the Twenty Per Cent Law

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 8.—The constitutionality of the so-called 20 per cent law will be put up for an opinion to Attorney General Gilbert in advance of the commencement of a test by attorneys of Madison who claim to have briefed this question, declaring that the law has no right to stand, and that the unconstitutionality is so apparent that the attorney general doubtless would knock it out in an official opinion and thus save the trouble, expense and delay of carrying the law through the supreme court on a test case.

Racine County Fails
RACINE, Wis., Sept. 8.—The democratic party failed to cast the required 20 per cent of the vote polled two years ago and therefore the legislative, state and county ticket cannot be placed on the ballot. TOMAH DOCTOR WILL LOCATE IN LA CROSSE

TOMAH, Wis., Sept. 8.—W. A. Henke, M. D., who has for a number of years been located in this city, is about to leave here to locate in La Crosse, expecting to make the change by the middle of this month. During his stay here Dr. Henke has enjoyed a practice such as no other physician has ever enjoyed in Tomah. While here he has established the Lusitania hospital, which has been a success beyond all expectations, and although it has been running but a short time there has been always practically a full house, and many operations of the most serious kind have been performed, with only one death to darken its history. What disposition will be made of the hospital is not yet definitely known. The doctor has demonstrated his ability as a surgeon, and only a larger city and better hospital facilities could induce him to leave. He has engaged rooms in the Majestic building on Main street, and will practice there, also operating in St. Francis hospital.

BURKE INDORSED FOR PRESIDENT

BISMARCK, N. D., Sept. 8.—Governor John Burke is the choice of North Dakota democrats for president in 1912. The state central committee indorsed the administration of Governor Burke and inserted in its platform a plank favoring his candidacy for presidency in the next election.

The platform as was finally evolved denounces the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, declares for an immediate and radical reduction of import duties, favors the improvement of all navigable rivers, conservation of natural resources, favors a national grain inspection law, favors the election of United States senators by direct vote, favors a primary law, but demands a reduction of the 30 per cent clause; indorses the administration of Governor Burke and indorses his candidacy for the presidency in 1912, and welcomes the assistance of the progressive wing of the republican party and calls attention to the fact that they both stand for the same thing.

FEDERAL VICTORY PLEASES LEADERS

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 8.—The victory of federal control conservationists in the National Conservation Congress received these comments from progressives:

Senator Beveridge of Indiana: "It's a victory for progressivism after a ten year fight."

Senator Moses Clapp of Minnesota: "Of course it's a progressive victory. Why take words to say that two and two are four?"

George Pardee, of California, former governor: "It would appear from the temper of the congress that the ghost of state rights has been again and let us hope finally laid. When we realize that the side of continuance of federal supervision of the conservation of federal owned natural resources has been championed by those who are sometimes called 'progressives' but are really 'insurgents' is, I think, very eloquent. The insurgent victory at the conservation congress is but a part of the victory at the polls whereby the people of Kansas, Iowa, California and Wisconsin have freed themselves from government by special interests."

BOSSHARD ONLY 3 BEHIND SENATOR

Victory of Progressives So Complete Stalwarts will Likely "Lay Down Bundle"

The landslide for "progressiveism" which Tuesday swept La Crosse county as well as the entire state, was so complete it is expected the stalwarts realizing the hopelessness of their position will "lay down their bundle" and give up the futile fight to defeat the senior senator and the progressives. It is to be assumed, of course, that many of the hard-shelled stalwarts will go to the polls in November and vote for the democratic nominees, but many who have been stalwarts are beginning to "see the light," and it is not expected that the few hard-shell variety, who would rather vote for Satan than for Bob will be numerous enough to cut any figure in the results.

There were many interesting comparisons possible in the vote in La Crosse county. For instance Otto Boshard, progressive candidate for senator to succeed Tom Morris, who was nominated lieutenant governor, secured 2,463 votes, only three votes for the county behind Senator La Follette, who secured 2,466.

The race for sheriff was perhaps one of the most interesting of the local contest and Derr's victory over his five opponents, all conceded to be strong candidates, was a gratifying result to the former contractor. The "dope" was for a close contest for county treasurer, as both Mr. Freehoff and Mr. Lunde were La Follette men and recognized as amply capable of filling the office. The vote of 1565 for Freehoff and 1483 for Lunde shows their popularity is nearly equal throughout the county.

Another vote which attracted wide interest here was that between Hudnall and Morris, for lieutenant governor. While Hudnall had centered his advertising, expenditures and oratorical efforts in the home county of Mr. Morris, the stalwart was defeated nearly four to one. Hudnall got 699 votes, while Mr. Morris piled up 2,489.

Otto Boshard carried every voting precinct in the county with the exception of the first ward in Onalaska where he was defeated by two votes.

John E. McConnell, nominee for assemblyman from the first district, carried every precinct in the first district excepting the 14th ward, where his competitor, Mr. Bryant, had one more vote.

Valentine S. Keppel, assembly nominee in the second district, carried every precinct in his district excepting the village of Bangor and in the second ward of Onalaska, where the vote was tied.

Another interesting result of the contest was that Tucker, progressive candidate for attorney general, who committed suicide last week at Oshkosh, carried the county by a big majority, getting 1,339, as compared to 777 for Gunderson, the man who made the charges against him, and 946 for Levi Bancroft, the stalwart. This result of nominating a dead man is taken by progressives to show the voters are voting not for men alone, but for a cause, and that when it became known Tucker's name represented the interests of the progressive cause, he was nominated without hesitation.

One of the close votes was between Andy Thompson and Aiken for the office of register of deeds. Thompson's final vote was 1849, as compared to Aiken's 1770.

S. D. Woodhouse is the only progressive in the county defeated in the primaries. The reason for this is dual. Mr. Woodhouse is a comparative stranger in the county and was not well known to the voters, while Russell Smith, his rival, had unusual strength owing to his physical condition. Even then Woodhouse secured 1527 votes, while Mr. Smith's vote was 1656.

While the name of Mr. Schall appeared on the ballot for county clerk, Clerk Rawlinson had practically no opposition. There was no contest for congressman, district attorney, coroner or surveyor.

SINGS AT THE LA CROSSE THEATRE... FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 7 Reserve your seats now at Noelke's Music Store. PRICES—$2.50, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00.

SCHUMANN HEINK AND "THE ROSARY"

"I never heard 'The Rosary' until two years ago," says Mme. Schumann-Heink, the famous contralto who will be the first "star" to appear in this city at the La Crosse Theatre Oct. 7th, for several seasons.

A young woman from St. Louis, who is now studying for grand opera in Berlin, came to sing for me. She had a beautiful big contralto voice, and when she sang "The Rosary," I was swept off my feet. I got the song at once, studied it and began to sing it in concert.

When I went to Europe a year ago last winter, I was honored with an invitation to sing for the Kaiser. He was entertaining the Queen of England and I was asked to the palace to sing while they had tea.

There were none present but his majesty and the empress and Queen Alexandra. I sang several German songs and then like a good American citizen, I sang "The Rosary." The Kaiser is not only a good musician but a composer, and he liked it immensely and asked me to sing other American songs. I was very happy to be able to sing him Chadwick's "Danza." How he did enjoy the lift of it. He asked for more Chadwick and I sang him "Oh Let Night Speak of Me." He enjoyed all the American songs and made inquiries about the composers and their works. The German public went wild over "The Rosary" and compelled me to repeat it every time it was sung.

Here in America, it is the song I love to sing best—it is one of the songs I sing in English and I know every word of it goes straight to the heart of every listener. It has always the same effect. There is a spontaneous burst of applause as the audience catches the first familiar phrase. Then comes silence that grows tender and tender. I can see and feel on every face before me that what is in my heart is in theirs, and we are both swept along in artistic transport to that aguish cry for a happiness that has escaped us. It is a song to wake an echo in every heart that has suffered the pain of loss; and what human heart is without that wound?

If you study the melodic outline of the song, it may surprise you to discover the connection that exists between the poet's imagery and the musical form. All of us do not "tell our heads" as the saying is, but we know that The Rosary is a string of small beads, with a larger bead strung between each set of ten smaller ones. Now notice the composer's phrase, how it slips along in eight notes, just as the beads would slip through your fingers. This is repeated over and over after the manner of the pious devotees of the rosary. Now observe the melodic outline of the climactic line "To kiss the cross—Sweetheart—to kiss the cross." The first part is sung on one note—the voice goes up and then down on the word "Sweetheart," and the concluding phrase is sung on one note as was the beginning. The composer has actually made the sign of the cross in his notation to convey the idea of the crucifix, which the devotee of the rosary kisses in concluding his devotion.

I had sung the song a great deal before I noticed this, and I have often wondered since, how many of those who hear the song are conscious of it.

With a mind of his own a man should be able to mind his own business.

At left, street costume of blue and white ring spotted foulard silk, showing the extreme of the tied-in skirt and dainty touches in neck and sleeve trimming. At right, charming evening gown of mauve crepe, the bodice ornamented with beaded net in the same tone and having draperies and undersleeves of plain net.

HOT-WEATHER LIVER TROUBLE

Many people who generally enjoy good health suffer from biliousness in the summer time. Rich foods served ice-cold are difficult to digest by the majority, and often produce a chilling of the entire digestive tract. The liver thus becomes sluggish, when the condition known as biliousness results. This is often accompanied by constipation or indigestion. Serious as it may seem, however, to the unfortunate person, it is easily curable with a remedy such as the well-known Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a great laxative and tonic, and which contains ingredients that act upon the liver and stimulate it. It will relieve a hot-weather liver complaint over night and cure it lastingly in a very short time. If you have any indisposition of the stomach, liver or bowels, your first concern should be a supply of this grand remedy, which you can obtain of any druggist for 50 cents or $1.00 a bottle. There will be enough and to spare for your complaint and that of your family. A FREE TRIAL BOTTLE will be sent to those who have never used it if they send their name and address to DR. W. B. CALDWELL, 400 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR RESTORER

Grew a Full Growth of Hair On a Bald Head

Here's the Proof

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

THE GOODS ON TAFT

From speech of Vice President
Sherman at Milwaukee Eleventh Story "telephone convention."

"When I received the invitation to come to Milwaukee and to address this convention, I hesitated because of my duties at Washington, but when that invitation was supplemented and seconded by our great leader, William H. Taft, I at once decided to accept it. And I wish to make it plain that President Taft did second that invitation and that I WAS SENT HERE BY MR. TAFT because that man is interested in republicanism and in republicanism in Wisconsin this year."

Telegram from President Taft to the man who could not beat a dead man:

"The Hon. L. H. Bancroft, Chairman Republican State Convention, Convention Hall, Milwaukee, Wis.:
"I am much gratified to receive the congratulations and assurance of confidence and support in your telegram, which has just been received, and will ask that you will express to
THE WISCONSIN REPUBLICANS ASSEMBLED IN CONVENTION my heartly thanks."

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

Even a president of the United States, if he looks for trouble long enough, can find it. By the same majority they gave Robert M. La Follette, the republicans of Wisconsin repudiated William H. Taft. The executive invited this humiliation; he is entitled to no sympathy. The only thing in which his party fully agrees with him is his recent statement that "one term as president is enough."

IS ENOUGH PLENTY?

Shock is known to have restored the equilibrium of unbalanced minds. Can it be that the shock they felt last Tuesday straightened the perspective and adjusted the logic of standpat publishers in Wisconsin?
"Chairman" Connor has from the outset conceded the nomination of Senator La Follette. He has all along planned to capture the legislature by splitting the republican vote through creating independent stalwart candidacies or throwing the stalwart vote to stalwart democrats.

But today publishers of stalwart papers are declaring that the primary "settles it." Why? Has Connor passed the word along? Time, and the character of Connor, seem to deny. Is it shock? or what?

The Tribune advises progressives everywhere to be on guard. However, we believe the overwhelming verdict of the primaries has led the stalwart publishers to overrule Connor's scheme. They may retract; they may harken to Connor's command to "about face, and at 'em!" But just now they are in full retreat, imbued with the notion that "discretion is the better part of valor."

The Free Press, Senator Stephenson's paper, is perhaps the most cautious of all, and still it goes thus far:

"The returns from the primary election in Wisconsin on Tuesday speak for themselves. They are sufficiently emphatic to furnish their own comment."

The Superior Telegram, which was generally progressive, but which supported Hudnall, says:

"The progressive candidates nominated will be elected. The result at the primaries puts that question beyond doubt. The only point of barely possible dispute would be an attempt on the part of the interests to get the legislature to ignore La Follette's overwhelming nomination for the United States senate. But in view of the overwhelming result at the primaries no such attempt is likely to be made, and, if attempted, it could not succeed. There is abundant probability that Wisconsin will have a legislature which cannot be bought, and the re-election of La Follette to the U. S. senate is assured."

The La Crosse Chronicle, which may merely speak in the hope of being "seen" again, entirely gives up the ghost. It says:

"We should not go quite so far as Colonel Roosevelt goes when he says it would be an 'outrage' to ignore the result of the primary as to the senatorship, for Senator La Follette himself set that fashion here.
But the rule of the majority is a principle for which we have profound respect in politics as well as in government and we yield to it now as we hope for its perfect recognition at all times in the history of republican activities everywhere. The ticket of the majority is The Chronicle's ticket."

The Milwaukee Sentinel, original Eleventh Story organ, is unconditional in its capitulation:

"The primary election is over, and the voters have signified at the polls what and whom they want. We have no use for the primary election law, but so long as it is on the statute books it is entitled to the deference of good citizenship."

The Racine Times, a truly progressive newspaper, has lost none of its warmth by the defeat of Lewis. Its gubernatorial candidate. It says:

"The defeat of Capt. Lewis is Wisconsin's loss. He would have made the state a splendid governor and would have carried to the office high ideals, impregnable honesty and executive ability of a high order."

"The effect of the (La Follette) victory in Wisconsin will be nationwide. It demonstrates that here in the home of progressive principles the movement for better things in government is still militant and triumphant. The victory yesterday will be like a trumpet call to the fighting progressives in other states."

The completeness of the La Follette victory is such that a raid upon the legislature seems doomed to defeat. Mr. Connor may know where there is a "jackpot," but he hasn't the "openers." Money has lost courage with its loss of prestige and, all in all, the re-election of Senator La Follette may develop into a quiet little matter of legislative routine.

MR. SHERMAN'S LENIENCY

"James Schoolcraft Sherman, vice president of the United States," says the Chicago Tribune, "derives so much enjoyment from his faulty sense of proportion that it would be a shame to straighten out his perspectives. We get his picture in the scheme of things as painted by himself when we listen to him informing a republican audience that it is his disposition to forgive any erring brother who will come back.
Even T. R. or Lloyd Griscom, or Vic Murdoch, or Cummins, or La Follette may take advantage of this leniency if he will present himself hat in hand, at Mr. Sherman's door and thereon knock self-effacingly."

The stupid optimism of Vice-president Sherman, who has seen the machine and money rule in the past and who has not the keenness to realize the change, is responsible for that gentleman's "cocky" insolence.
The really big standpat leaders do not share his assurance.

With respect to the eternal fitness of things it may be suggested that even if Mr. Gordon insists on utilizing the Fairchild banner for a fancy vest, the remnants may suffice for a bandanna for Lem(on) Cox and enough neckties to go round.

One K. Nelson, who insured cautiously on the tariff, but who in the main is standing pat where he was put by "Jim" Hill, may one day realize that in coming to the support of "Jim" Tawney he rushed in where wise men fear to tread.

Any amusement Candidate Lewis finds in the primary returns may be expected to be rather dry humor.

Perfectly Proper
"What's the next station, conductor?" asked the nervous passenger.
"It's called 'Old Glory,' ma'am."
"But why is it called 'Old Glory?'"
"It's a flag station."—Cleveland Leader.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Who, Oh Who?
The elephant is big and strong,
The donkeys' step is proud.
The eagle screams a glorious song.
But as these figures pass in view
For all the world to note,
A solemn question sounds anew;
"Oh, who will be the goat?"

Oh, who, when leaders call the clans
To fortune or to fame
Will dine upon the old tin cans
Whose contents others claim?
Who will give battle, or give milk
To safeguard many a vote
For those with hosiery of silk;
Oh, who will be the goat?

Somebody has to bear the weight
Of disappointment's woe.
To aid the gay and fortunate
As on their way they go.
And so, as various emblems bask
In sunshine where they float,
It seems a proper thing to ask,
"Who's going to be the goat?"
—Washington Star.

Nearest He Could Come Bishop William A. Quayle, in an address in Oklahoma City, said:

"The east talks of the ignorant and godless west, but the west might well talk, at least, as regards certain sections of the godless and ignorant east."
"The eastern section I have in mind is the younger social set—the idle young men and women of vast inherited wealth. A young millionaire and his wife from this set gave a dinner to a visiting bishop recently, and when the party sat down at the table the young millionaire, for the first time in his life, resolved that in the bishop's honor a grace should precede the meal. So he rapped with his fork for silence and then stammered:

"Er—would you mind, bishop, pronouncing—er—a benediction?"
—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"How can you tell a Yale man from a Harvard man?"
"Well, a Yale man always acts as if he owned the world."

"Yes?"
"And a Harvard man always acts as if he doesn't know what vulgar person owns the world, and furthermore, he doesn't care to know."— Cleveland Leader.

Just Like a Man

Mrs. E. S. Stewart, the secretary of the National Woman Suffrage association, said in a recent address in Chicago:

"These men on the one hand accuse the so-called new woman of demoralizing the home, and on the other hand they go about the world abusing the home with all the cynical wit they can muster up."

"Once, on a steamship, the captain sailed a lot against the voting woman and her neglect of household duties. And it was this same captain, of course, who laughed when a pretty girl said to him on the promenade deck:

"Don't you ever get homesick?"
"Homesick? Ha, ha, ha!" he roared. "Why so, I'm never home enough."—Washington Star.

The tiger lily in his den
An angry noise did make
The dandy lion roared aloud
Until the earth did quake.
The daisy, scared and trembling,
Ne'er daring to look up Faltering, then she stumbled
And spilled the buttercup.

The violets all shook with fear
And each one bowed her head.
The thought, though was so awesome
They near fell out of bed.
For there the climbing columbine,
A very naughty lad!
Watched from his point of vantage
The modest lily pad.

A Banter

"The summer girl," said Miss Ma-

What would the seashore be without shore like the sunshine. Sometimes moonlit, wave-washed pier, I heard a girl bantering a young man."

"Its love," said the young man reproachfully, as she disengaged her waist from his arm—"its love that makes the world go round."

"I know it," she answered, pushing him away all the same, "and that is why we summer girls are so giddy."

COMPLETE NEWS OF THE NORTH SIDE

S. S. S. A REAL CURE FOR BLOOD DISEASE

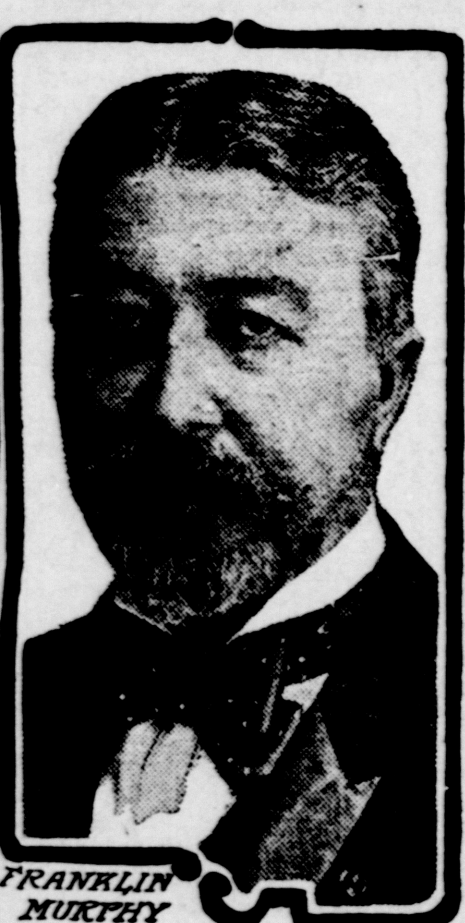

S. S. S. is a real cure for Contagious Blood Poison because it is a real blood purifier. We all realize that this disease is a specific blood infection of the most powerful nature, the virus of which so thoroughly poisons the corpuscles of the circulation that its symptoms are manifested over almost the entire body. First comes a tiny sore or pimple, then the mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to fall out, skin diseases break out on the body, sores and ulcers appear, and even the bones ache with rheumatic pains. It is reasonable to believe that in a blood poison so powerful as this that only a blood purifier can have any permanent good effect. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the insidious virus makes a permanent and lasting cure of Contagious Blood Poison. It does not hide or cover up the disease in the system but it entirely removes the last trace of its destructive germs. If you are suffering with this disease S. S. S. will cure you because it will cleanse your blood and enrich its health-promoting corpuscles. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and is a medicine so absolutely safe and certain in its results, that everyone may cure themselves at home, and be assured the cure will be permanent and lasting. NORTH SIDE WATER SUPPLY

Mr. Editor:

I am in favor of a more bountiful supply of water for the north side. Fire protection is entirely inadequate and steps should be taken at once to give this part of our city that larger supply of water necessary to provide ample protection against fire and an adequate facility for sprinkling lawns. I think this view of the question is shared by all. But now shall this be accomplished? Some of the north side aldermen have been misled by that overpowering persistence indulged in by the present administration to force a filtering plant upon us as a cureall for the deficiency existing in the water supply. They have been taught and have openly advocated the theory that a filter and settling basin would increase the volume of water with which the north side is to be supplied and have voted to saddle this city with an initiative of $250,000 with all the vast sums that must follow to complete the system and keep it in working condition.

Do you know what this sum would mean? It would mean that every home in the city of La Crosse would be mortgaged to pay interest on this investment and the principal when due. There is a much cheaper and better way out of the difficulty. There is a lagoon in the center of Pettibone park that is entirely cut off from the river and is always kept on a level with the river by water filtered up through the sandy bottom—an extensive filter formed free of expense by nature and ready for our use. It would cost but little to extend the intake pipe to this lagoon. We would then be free from the drift of the current of the river that fills the intake pipe with sand and necessitates a frequent cleaning out at great expense. Then increase the size of the main pipe that leads to the north side and put the pump at work. I am informed that our pump is not reaching its capacity by several million gallons per day, and is in good condition. The water would be free from sand and mud and other objectionable matter, and a big globe strainer on the end of the intake would keep out fish and other inhabitants of the water. This plan could be adopted at once and in a very short time be in full operation. The pipe to the north side must be enlarged no matter what system we employ.

We all have drive wells that furnish us with good, pure drinking water and water for culinary purposes, and we have no occasion to resort to the supply furnished by the city pump. But if we do want to abandon our wells and use the city supply for drinking and culinary purposes, then the cheapest, purest and best water can be obtained by sinking wells at the foot of the bluffs and constructing a reservoir, into which the water can be pumped, sufficiently high to distribute it all over the city by gravitation and save the cost of coal.

Several towns along the river have adopted this plan and like it much. This system would cost less than half the first cost of the filter system. It is said by the adherents of the filter system that these wells would soon be pumped dry. Ex-Mayor Copeland sank a single well at Myrick park and set an engine to work pumping water and couldn't pump it dry. The writer has a well at his home that has been used by four families for twenty years and pumps as free as when first put down. We have voted this filtering project down twice, the last time four to one, now let us bury it. X RAY.

"SAM OR UNCLE SAM" NATIONAL SLOGAN

PANAMA, Sept. 8.—To guard against trouble after Friday's election by the national assembly of a successor to the late President Obaldia, the United States has landed 200 marines and eight guns from the Tacoma. They were sent to Bas Obispo, sixteen miles from here.

The situation is such that Col. Geo. Goethals, governor of the canal zone, believes that American annexation may become necessary.

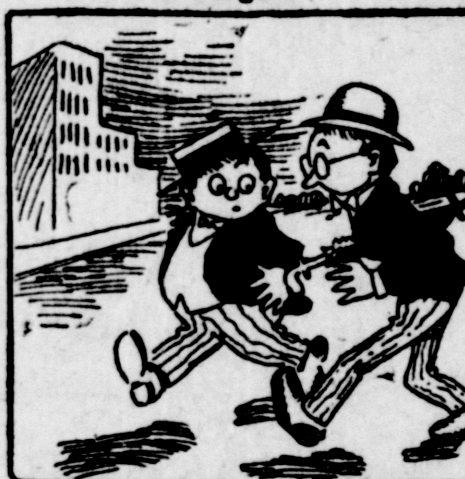

"Sam or Uncle Sam" was the slogan today of a caucus of 17 members of the national assembly. The "Sam" is Samuel Lewis, minister of foreign affairs, and leader of the conservative party, whose election is looked upon as the only way to check annexation by Uncle Sam.

Progressive Victory Shown to Be More Sweeping than Earlier Returns Indicated

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 8.—Although yet incomplete latest returns from Wisconsin's state wide primaries on Tuesday, today indicate that Francis E. McGovern, La Follette supporter, and anti-county optionist, has carried the state by 15,000 plurality. Senator E. T. Fairchild, Taft republican, is second in the race with Captain W. M. Lewis, county option candidate, third.

"Progressive" candidates for minor offices on the state ticket are now without question nominated to a man.

The nomination of Frank T. Tucker, "progressive" candidate for attorney general, who committed suicide at Oshkosh a few days prior to the primaries, is now conceded by a large majority. Under the primary law it is up to the state central committee to appoint Tucker's successor. With the next committee, which to all appearances will be "progressive," Tucker's election will mean a "progressive" will be appointed in his place.

If the wish of the people as expressed in the primary vote on Tuesday is ratified by the voters at the polls in November, Wisconsin will send back to Washington a congressional delegation which will be practically solid insurgent.

COBB AS GOOD AS EVER

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 8.—Ty Cobb, the star hitter of the Detroit Tigers, will be back in the game as good as ever within a few days, according to the statement of Dr. Wm. E. Keane, the club physician, and Dr. Robert W. Gilman, an eye specialist, today. The story that Cobb is going blind is scouted by the physicians.

Although the board has held regular meetings during the past three months, the several committees have been active and considerable business has been disposed of. Reports will be submitted by the committees on by-laws, resolutions, banquets, conventions and excursion manufactures, railroads and transportation and several special committees. In addition to this Secretary Utermoehl has several other matters that will be brought up.

FISHERIES DECISION NOT SO GLOWING

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The longer England considers the award in the fisheries dispute the less enthusiasm is manifested for the decision which was at first hailed as a great British victory. This was made manifest by the tone of the afternoon press today, which is far less enthusiastic than before.

It is agreed that the decision is a diplomatic victory for England, but that it has disarmed New Foundland of her economic quarrel with America. It is expected the decision will lead to new negotiations between America and New Foundland.

The Morning Post, which was the only morning paper to take an optimistic view of the awards, says: "It would be difficult to find a more humiliating chapter in English history than this quarrel."

HENEY IN FIGHT AGAINST TAWNEY

Famous Graft Prosecutor will Speak at Austin Sept. 15 in War
on Cannonite

A telephone message from Lanesboro, Minn., today brings information that Francis Heney, the famous San Francisco graft prosecutor, will enter the fight to defeat James Tawney for renomination to congress in the Minnesota district, by speaking in favor of the candidacy of Sidney Anderson, progressive, at Austin, Minn., Thursday, Sept. 15.

Mr. Heney follows Pinchot in promoting the candidacy of Anderson as opposed to Tawney, who is proclaimed the foe of Roosevelt and the progressive movement, and the Anderson supporters believe Heney's address will have a telling effect. Heney also spoke in Wisconsin in favor of Senator La Follette. Candidate Anderson will talk at Austin at the same time.

The fight in Tawney's district is the hottest the Cannonite ever has had to contend with and the Anderson supporters are certain that "Jim" Tawney will go down to defeat when the primary votes are counted Sept. 20.

SAYS SYSTEM WILL PRECIPITATE PANIC

MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 8.—"Mr. Roosevelt is first and last a self-seeker, a Roosevelt man and in all his spectacular political maneuvering he is always extremely cautious as to what effect his vile performance will have upon his own political fortunes."

According to Eugene V. Debs, former socialist nominee for president, launching the new nationalism forgo that it was not "Theodore Roosevelt's but John Brown's birthday that was being celebrated.

The "new nationalism," said Debs today, is the "middle class rebellion against the big interests."

"It is possible these interests may precipitate a panic as the means of checking Roosevelt's insane ambitions and the people as usual will suffer."

"WORLD" STARTS ITS ROASTS ON "TEDDY"

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Asserting that Col. Roosevelt while president failed to prosecute the sugar trust, the New York World today prints the first of a series of articles which it claims will prove its contentions. They are by George H. Earle, who as receiver for the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company, compelled the trust to disgorge more than $2,000,000 as damages for having driven the Pennsylvania concern out of business.

In today's article Earle alleges that he asked President Roosevelt and Attorney General Bonaparte to prosecute the sugar trust under the Sherman anti-trust law and that they refused but that, later, when President Taft came into office a prosecution was successfully maintained. Earle says he prepared the articles because of Roosevelt's "attack" on the supreme court.

REVOLUTION DOESN'T IMPEND; IT'S HERE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 8.—With the exception of men nominated, Victor Murdock is one of the happiest men in the United States. The Kansas insurgent stopped over in St. Louis enroute from Chicago to the centennial celebration at Mexico City. Murdock rejoiced over the sweeping insurgent victories in Wisconsin, Michigan and New England. He said: "All of the old machine crowd who cares for further political activity are making for their cyclone caves. Only the unobserving believe that a political revolution impends, the observing know that the revolution is here."

Outside New York, Pennsylvania and Missouri, Joseph Cannon has no support. Illinois even will not stand for him."

THOUGHT BEAR A HEIFER; ESCAPES

MARINETTE, Wis., Sept. 8.—Frank, the 8 year old son of Frank Cummings, a farmer living near Oconto, saw what he believed was a missing black heifer in his father's fields about dusk last night and ran to chase it to the barn.

The "heifer," which proved to be a big black bear, turned on him and the boy narrowly escaped with his life.

After bruin had attacked the boy, his mother rushed across the field to his aid and the bear ran off into the woods.

BLITZ and BLATZ

Blatz—Why Blatz, what's the matter of you? You look pinched and pale in the countenance, and your clothes don't fit you!

Blitz—Blatz, I think I have the prevailing ailing what they call cholera morbi. I got always a noise and a pain in the stomach, and much too much looseness in the bowels. I don't eat good, I feel bad, and I'm losing strength.

Blatz—You got it alright! Many peoples are troubled with it in the present. It's a bad disorder; but it can be cured quick.

Blitz—You don't say so! How do you do it. What is it? Who's got it?

Blatz—Druggist Bayschlag on 503 Main street sells it. It's called Dr. Hammer's Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and costs 50 cents. It's worth $50, and when you take that remedy as is directed, you'll be a well man within three days. I use it for years in the family and it never failed yet.

Blitz—My how lucky to meet you. We go rightaway to Bayschlag's now for that remedy. For you I buy one of those fine $1.00 safety razors what he also sells. You need it.

A certain Acheson woman is martyr, and enjoys it. She has a husband and three sons, and when she wants to particularly humiliate them she cleans the cellar, and is sick in bed for a week.

Air castles seem always to invite destructive storms.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to extend my grateful thanks to my fellow employees for their generous and material aid to me in my sad bereavement.

Awful Headaches

The remedy oftentimes is the proper glasses. To obtain the proper glasses one must entrust their care to one, like myself, who is capable of examining their eyes and prescribing the proper glasses.

The mere wearing of glasses, if they are not correct, only adds to your troubles.

Avoid all trouble and let me have the opportunity of proving to you that my glasses are correct. I don't make excuses. I make good. Phone 60-R for appointments.

ROOSEVELT DAY WAS A HUMMER

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 8.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt and party left Milwaukee at 7 o'clock this morning for Chicago, where he will be a guest of the Hamilton club. The visit of Col. Roosevelt to Milwaukee was one of the most strenuous days in the history of the city, it is said. With unusual vigor the colonel spent the day shaking thousands of hands, addressing clubs and trade schools, presided at luncheons and finished the day with a speech at the local Hippodrome and Auditorium. The colonel's scheduled speech here was split in half to satisfy the people, for the Auditorium, it was found, would accommodate only half who clamored for tickets. The colonel made an address at the Hippodrome first and later wound up the day with the auditorium address.

It is estimated 100,000 Milwaukeeans saw Roosevelt, but only about 15,000 were enabled to hear him talk.

BALLINGER WAITS FOR "WHITEWASH"

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 8.—Though Secretary of the Interior Ballinger read with great interest today the reports of the proceedings of the Ballinger-Pinchot committee at Minneapolis yesterday he declined to make any comment at this time, except to repeat his statement that he did not intend to resign. It is believed he intends to await the action of the full committee tomorrow before making any statement. It is assumed by politicians here that Ballinger last night discussed the situation at length with Attorney General Wickersham and Secretary Nagel at the reception given in Ballinger's honor by the Arctic club.

Pain in Heart

"For two years I had pain in my heart, back and left side. Could not draw a deep breath or lie on left side, and any little exertion would cause palpitation. Under advice I took Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy and Nervine. I took about thirteen bottles, am in better health than I ever was, and have gained 14 pounds."

MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

For many years Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy has been very successful in the treatment of heart troubles, because of its tonic effect upon the heart nerves and muscles. Even in severe cases of long standing it has frequently prolonged life for many years after doctors had given up all hope, as proven by thousands of letters we have received from grateful people.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your druggist will return your money.

MORRIS RECEIVES MANY TELEGRAMS

Nominee for Lieutenant Governor Congratulated on Success in the Primary

Letters and telegrams congratulating him on his success in securing the nomination for lieutenant governor have been pouring into the office of Senator Thomas Morris.

One of the most notable is that of Judge William L. Holloway, of the supreme court of Montana. "Helena, Mont.

"Hon. Thomas Morris, La Crosse, Wis.

"Hearty congratulations on your nomination, and best wishes for your success in November. Wisconsin appears to know what is wanted and how to get it.

told him that she was going to a man who was better able to keep her than Crippen. Crippen confessed to me that he told me the story of his wife's supposed death to hide the scandal of his wife's leaving him. He said that so far as he knew his wife was still living and expressed his belief that she had gone to Chicago to join Bruce Miller."

When the hearing was resumed after lunch, Dew again took the stand and read from the statement made to him by Miss Leneve. It was to the effect that Crippen told her that his wife had gone to America and that he wanted her to live at the Hilldrop Crescent home during his wife's absence. When Miss Leneve went to the Crippen home, the doctor told her his wife had died on the voyage. He told her, the statement said, that it was too far to go to the funeral.

"I finally told Crippen that he would have to find his wife," Dew said, "and he offered to advertise in newspapers in the United States."

Dew said that when he visited the doctor's Hilldrop Crescent home, Crippen was most courteous and composed.

When cross examined by Newton, Dew admitted that the piece of underwear and the pajamas found with the body of the woman might have been purchased by anyone and were of ordinary quality. Dew was forced to admit that he had not taken the pains to verify Crippen's statements regarding Bruce Miller, even though he believed Miller was in England at the time mentioned by Crippen.

Newton attempted to show by Dew that the cellar where the human remains were found had not been disturbed for years and that it was possible that the remains might have been there long before Mrs. Crippen's absence was noticed. Dew said the cellar did look as though it had not been visited for a long time, but he said the fair state of preservation in which the remains were found precluded the idea of their having been there for a long time.

"Only portions of the body were decomposed," he said.

Detective Sergeant Mitchell corroborated Dew regarding the discovery of the remains. At the conclusion of Mitchell's testimony the hearing was adjourned until next Wednesday.

Places on the program this morning to Amos L. Pondo, State Forester Allan of Oregon and J. Whipple of New York. President Baker this morning introduced these speakers, each of whom told of conservation in his district of the country and deprecated the introduction of politics into the conservation program.

Rich Want Honesty

Judge Frank H. Short of Fresno, the governor's delegate from California, spoke on "The Conservation spoke for real money and that he spoke for real money and that he was employed by a considerable number of large water companies and electric companies.

"As a man accumulates property," said Judge Short, "he becomes just that much more interested in the honesty and integrity of the government."

GREAT WHITE WAY MEETS WITH FAVOR

That the request of the La Crosse Merchants' Protective Association asking that the city pay for the electric current to be used in lighting the downtown district by a "Great White Way," provided the merchants install the lamps, will be granted, was shown after a meeting of the committee on lights and special lights of the common council held last evening.

The petition of the merchants was discussed and the plan met with favor among the members of the committee. Another meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon, when the light company will make a price on the electric current. It is said that the cost of the white way would not be more than the present cost of arc lamps. Should a satisfactory arrangement be made between the city and the light company, work of installing the new poles would begin this fall.

WINNING BADGERS MAY ASSAIL JIM

Victorious Progressive Candidates May Invade Tawney's District for Anderson

For Wisconsin progressive nominees to flock into the first Minnesota congressional district, to speak in the interests of Sydney Anderson and defeat Jim Tawney, servitor of the system, is a plan that has been suggested and which may be worked out.

The overwhelming endorsement given the progressive movement by the voters of Wisconsin is taken as indicative of the mood of the people throughout the entire middle west. Sydney Anderson in the First Minnesota district stands for the policies advocated by La Follette, Dolliver, Bristow, Clapp and others but he is handicapped by Tawney's complete control of the press.

The plan, it is said, would be for ten or twelve prominent Wisconsin progressives to go into the Tawney district a week or two before election and explain just what and who Tawney stands for, show up his record in the house, and his allegiance to the Aldrich-Cannon forces and let the voters decide between Anderson, the progressive and Tawney, the standpatter.

BURNS GETS BIG VOTE IN THE CITY

With Eight Country Precincts Missing, the Vote for Sheriff Is 850 to 220

With eight country precincts missing in the democratic returns of the primary election on Tuesday, Chris J. Burns, candidate for sheriff, was nominated over Michael McHugh, by a vote of 850 to 220. Of course, the missing precincts will probably show some gains for Mr. McHugh, but the result will remain unchanged.

The returns thus far reported also show that the democrats polled more than the required 20 per cent vote in La Crosse county. Only about 800 or 900 votes were necessary to keep the democratic ticket upon the official ballot at the November election.

The canvassing board will meet at the court house tomorrow and make the official count. County Clerk C. H. Rawlinson has nearly all the returns in his possession, but he is not allowed to open them until the board meets tomorrow.

The following shows the vote for sheriff in the city of La Crosse and eight precincts in the country:

RATE COMMISSION TO INSPECT POLES

City Is Restrained from Cutting Down Poles of the Bell Telephone Company

The city of La Crosse has received a restraining notice from the railroad commission of Wisconsin in the matter of removing the poles owned by the Wisconsin Telephone company on the Mormon Coulee road, and no action will be taken until after the commission visits the city about September 17 to inspect the poles and decide whether or not the poles shall be removed and the company be compelled to lay its wires underground.

Mayor Sorensen this morning received a notice from the commission stating that the commission will be here within ten days and also enclosing a complaint made against the city by the Wisconsin Telephone company. At a recent meeting of the common council the city attorney was instructed to notify the telephone company that it must remove its poles from the Mormon Coulee road within 60 days. The time is up on September 11, and, according to the resolution adopted by the council, the board of public works was instructed to chop down the poles if the request of the city had not been complied with.

It is argued by the telephone company that the thoroughfare in question is lined with small houses and that there is not a sufficient amount of business to be derived by the company along that road to warrant it in going to the expense of placing its wires underground. On the other hand the city, some years ago, passed an ordinance providing that no poles be allowed in the brick paved district.

The city will take no action in the matter until after the commission has been here to inspect the poles and decide what shall be done.

To secure the payment thereof the said H. L. Niles and Irene C. Niles, his wife, made, executed and delivered to said D. E. FREEHOFF NAMED; BRADLEY SECOND

Switching of Names at Top of Columns in Count Causes Confusion in the Result

The reversal of the names of the candidates for sheriff at the top of the columns yesterday in The Tribune's report of the election caused confusion of the results. Derr ran first with 890, Bradley second with 643, Wright third with 582, McDonald fourth with 559, Moore fifth with 368 and Marshall last with 275.

While the tabulated returns on county treasurer were correct, the summary was misleading owing to an error. Freehoff was nominated over Lunde, the votes being 1565 to 1483.

The corrected table on the vote for sheriff follows:

HEARST OFFERS TO HELP ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—New York machine politicians of both parties are agitated today over the suggestion of an alliance between Col. Theodore Roosevelt and his one time bitter enemy, William R. Hearst.

Hearst has extended the olive branch and in an amazing first page editorial in his New York newspaper today promises the support of his "independent followers" to Roosevelt if he will come back to New York and lead a fight against the bosses for the people.

"There is no jealousy in our ranks," says Hearst. "We do not care who leads, if only he leads right. Drive the republican bosses out of the republican party and if any one of them deserts to the democratic party of 50,000 independents take his place. If Barnes, Woodruff, Aldridge, all three of them, deserts to the democracy, one hundred and fifty thousand independents will take their places. We cast that many votes at the last election. Mr. Roosevelt, we can cast them again and more."

Declaration of War

That this was construed as indicating that the Hearst followers would back Roosevelt in the coming fight in New York state provided he would become an active candidate for the republican gubernatorial nomination and if defeated at the convention as now seems likely he would run independently, was shown by hurried conferences between the leaders of both parties.

The democrats who are in this city to attend Chairman Dix's harmony dinner tonight accepted Hearst's statement as a declaration of war on the party.

The republican leaders construed the Hearst appeal to be a "play for position" in the coming fight. Roosevelt will have nothing to do with Hearst, they say, but Hearst will have placed himself in such a position where he will be able to swing the balance of power in the coming state election. These leaders point to the fact that in a second editorial in the Hearst newspaper today, Roosevelt is denounced for sending the Hay-Pauncefote treaty to the senate for confirmation when it contained a provision which would have prevented the United States from fortifying the Panama canal. This indicates, the republican leaders claim, that Hearst realizes full well that Roosevelt will turn a deaf ear to his appeal. If he does, Hearst will take advantage of the independent sentiment in this state and run a third ticket in the coming campaign with fair prospects of winning out, they say.

You find these "best" stories in Cosmopolitan, because we have secured the best writers for you.

You know Alfred Henry Lewis's "Wolfville Stories." They are the ones that made him famous from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and indeed even in Europe. He is continuing these "Wolfville Stories" in the Cosmopolitan.

You remember George Randolph Chester, who, in the form of fiction, warned you against the thousand and one "get-rich-quick" schemes that clever, plausible tricksters are trying to catch the unwary with. Six more of these have been written for the Cosmopolitan. They are interesting and fascinating as fiction and absolutely accurate as to the facts they contain.

Jacques Futrelle is writing a new series of adventure stories, creating a new detective character far better than Sir A. Conan Doyle's famous Sherlock Holmes. In dash and exciting interest this Futrelle detective and the parts he plays make stories that are absolutely breathless.

Other fiction writers have also been secured to write for the Cosmopolitan:

O. Henry,
Henry Rowland,
Agnes and Edgerton Castle,
Emory Pottle,
Porter Emerson Brown,
